| Priority Standard 1 | MS-PS3-3Gathe                            | er and make sens       | se of information      | to describe that        | synthetic mater      | als come from n      | atural resources and impact society.   |                     |                  |
|---------------------|--|------------------------|------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|--|---------------------|------------------|
|                     | # of Studentsthat tookassessment | # of Students with a 4 | # of Students with 3.5 | # of Students with 3    | # of students with 2 | # of students with 1 |  |                     |                  |
| Dunphy              | 67                                       | 38                     | 21                     | 6                       | 2                    | 0                    | Jack and Jordan still need to complete |                     |                  |
| Roberston           | 54                                       | 22                     | 22                     | 9                       | 1                    | 0                    |  |                     |                  |
|                     |  |                        |                        |                         |                      |                      |  |                     |                  |
| Totals              | 121                                      | 60                     | 43                     | 15                      | 3                    | 0                    |  |                     |                  |
| Percentages         |  | 49.59%                 | 35.54%                 | 12.40%                  | 2.48%                | 0.00%                |  |                     |                  |
| Percent Proficient  | 85.12%                                   |                        |                        |                         |                      |                      |  |                     |                  |
| Priority Standard 2 | MS-ESS3-4 Cor                            | nstruct an argum       | ent supported by       | y evidence for ho       | w increases in h     | uman population      | and per-capita consumption of natur    | al resources impact | Earth's systems. |
|                     | # of Studentsthat tookassessment | # of Students with a 4 | # of Students with 3.5 | # of Studentswith 3 | # of students with 2 | # of students with 1 |  |                     |                  |
| Dunphy              | 69                                       | 56                     | 12                     | 1                       | 0                    | 0                    |  |                     |                  |
| Roberston           | 55                                       | 38                     | 14                     | 3                       | 0                    | 0                    |  |                     |                  |
|                     |  |                        |                        |                         |                      |                      |  |                     |                  |
| Totals              | 124                                      | 94                     | . 26                   | 4                       | 0                    | 0                    |  |                     |                  |
| Percentages         |  | 75.81%                 | 20.97%                 | 3.23%                   | 0.00%                | 0.00%                |  |                     |                  |
| Percent Proficient  | 96.77%                                   |                        |                        |                         |                      |                      |  |                     |                  |