 - a. Why did the character do that specific action?
 - b. What event made the character feel that way?
 - c. Why does the character look unhappy in the picture?
 - d. How did the character solve the problem?

2. What is a question you might ask yourself AFTER you read a text?
 - a. What are the characters doing in the picture?
 - b. How is this event going to affect the character's feelings?
 - c. Where will the story take place?
 - d. What might the characters do after they solved their problem?

Read the story. Then, read each question and determine if it is a THIN question or a THICK question. Circle "thin" or "thick". Then, answer the question in a complete sentence.

This summer, Jill could not stop reading. There was a reason for her non-stop reading. Her elementary school was having a summer reading challenge. She wanted to win the challenge so badly! Since she intended to win, her new favorite thing to do this summer was to go to the park every single day to read. She would read in the park for over three hours. She wanted to attempt to read five chapter books this summer. She was hoping that reading at the park would help her reach her goal.

3. What was the reason for Jill's non-stop reading? THIN or THICK

4. What did Jill intend to do in order to win the challenge? THIN or THICK

5. Even if Jill does not win the challenge, how will this make her a better student?

THIN or THICK
