

RL/RI.6.1 CFA

1) Why do you think Zadio's parents threw her a huge party?

- a) To help her become well liked and popular with her 5th grade class.
- b) To help cheer her up from her broken arm and her cat going missing.
- c) To show everyone that they have money.
- d) To invite her friends and classmates to see One Direction.

2) What details from the text support the date of the article (July 28, 2012)?

- a) Nearly all of Zadio's fifth grade class at Clover Elementary attended the affair.
- b) "Zadio was so surprised when she saw it," said Mrs. Donner during the party.
- c) On a sweltering late-July afternoon, this reporter (and friend of the family) found herself in that backyard.
- d) Oddly enough, the band was performing in Philadelphia that night, and they happened to know one of Zadio's aunts.

3) Which inference could you NOT make based on the article?

- a) The Donners are well off.
- b) Zadio was so appreciative of her party.
- c) Kids are friends with Zadio because her parents have money.
- d) Mrs. Donner feels healthy food is important.

4) Where do the events in this story take place?

- a) Local park
- b) Clover Elementary School
- c) One Direction concert
- d) Donner residence

5) Use the R.A.C.E. Strategy to answer this question.

What can you infer about Zadio's family based on this article?

RL/RI.6.1 CFA

1. Why do you think Zadie's parents threw her a huge party?
 - a) To help her become well liked and popular with her 5th grade class.
 - b) To help cheer her up from her broken arm and her cat going missing.
 - c) To show everyone that they have money.
 - d) To invite her friends and classmates to see One Direction.
2. What details from the text support the date of the article (July 28, 2012)?
 - a. Nearly all of Zadie's fifth grade class at Clover Elementary attended the affair.
 - b. "Zadie was so surprised when she saw it," said Mrs. Donner during the party.
 - c. On a sweltering late-July afternoon, this reporter (and friend of the family) found herself in that backyard.
 - d. Oddly enough, the band was performing in Philadelphia that night, and they happened to know one of Zadie's aunts.
3. Which inference could you NOT make based on the article?
 - a. The Donners are well off.
 - b. Zadie was so appreciative of her party.
 - c. Kids are friends with Zadie because her parents have money.
 - d. Mrs. Donner feels healthy food is important.
4. Where do the events in this story take place?
 - a. Local park
 - b. Clover Elementary School
 - c. One Direction concert
 - d. Donner residence
5. Use the R.A.C.E. Strategy to answer this question.

What can you infer about Zadie's family based on this article?

R-A-C-E Writing Rubric

1 5 pts.	2 10 pts.	3 15 pts.	4 20 pts.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">The student restated the question, but the answer was incorrect.The student did not provide any evidence to support or explain their answer.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The student restated and correctly answered the question.The student did not provide any evidence to support or explain their answer.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The student restated the question.The student provided the correct answer.The student supported their answer with appropriate and valid evidence from the text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The student restated the question.The student correctly answered the question.The student supported their answer with appropriate and valid evidence from the text.The student explained how their evidence supported their answer.