

Mastery Level	(TEKS) 5.9 Genres. The student recognizes and analyzes genre-specific characteristics, structures, and purposes within and across increasingly complex traditional, contemporary, classical, and diverse texts. 5.9.A The student is expected to demonstrate knowledge of distinguishing characteristics of well-known children's literature such as folktales, fables, legends, myths, and tall tales; 5.9 B The student explains the use of sound devices and figurative language and distinguish between the poet and the speaker in poems across a variety of poetic forms;	Smylie HR	Abueita HR	Martin HR	Jirrels HR	Heki HR
4 Master 90-100	Students is able to distinguish the unique characteristics of works of fiction including 1. structural differences between a story, a poem, and a drama 2 differences between speaker in a poem, narrator in a story, and characters in a play 3. compare and contrast theme in each work of fiction 4. use of figurative language in each work of fiction 5. compare and contrast setting in each work of fiction
3 Practitioner 80-89	Students is able to distinguish some of the unique characteristics of works of fiction including 1. structural differences between a story, a poem, and a drama 2 differences between speaker in a poem, narrator in a story, and characters in a play 3. compare and contrast theme in each work of fiction 4. use of figurative language in each work of fiction 5. compare and contrast setting in each work of fiction
2 Apprentice 70-79	Students is able to distinguish a few of the unique characteristics of works of fiction including 1. structural differences between a story, a poem, and a drama 2 differences between speaker in a poem, narrator in a story, and characters in a play 3. compare and contrast theme in each work of fiction 4. use of figurative language in each work of fiction 5. compare and contrast setting in each work of fiction
1 Novice 60-69	Students is able to distinguish only one or none the unique characteristics of works of fiction including 1. structural differences between a story, a poem, and a drama 2 differences between speaker in a poem, narrator in a story, and characters in a play 3. compare and contrast theme in each work of fiction 4. use of figurative language in each work of fiction 5. compare and contrast setting in each work of fiction
Intervention						